Millionaires' Club#

This week, Mila, Kush, Alex, Darcie and Jon attained 10,000 words. Leni and Ivy made it to 25,000 words. Joshua W and Theo H reached 50,000 words. Soraya M, Leah R and Nancy B all read 75,000 words. Isaac W received his 150,000-word certificate. 'Quality literature ignites children's creativity, curiosity, and deep personal investment in stories, which naturally drives high attainment in both reading and writing'. Keep on reading!

School Christmas Disco and non-uniform day 11.12.26

We will be holding a Christmas Disco, to raise money for school funds, on Friday 11th December from 15:15-16:30. The day will also be a non-uniform day.
Tickets are £5 each (which includes a drink a snack and the opportunity to wear 'home clothes') and are available on Parentpay.
If your child does not wish to attend the disco but would like to wear 'home clothes' on the day, a payment of £1 can be made via Parentpay.
Many thanks to Mr Steventon who has agreed to DJ at the event.

Royal British Legion

Thank you for all your generous financial donations to the Royal British Legion. Many thanks the Y6 children who sold the remembrance poppies and other items at breaktime.

Headteacher's Awards

This week, the children who have won a Headteacher's Award for demonstrating one of our learning values (T- Think Hard, H- Help Each Other, I - Imagine, N- Never Give Up, K – Keep Improving) are Jaya, Monty, Jon, Leni, Teddy, Soraya, Vani, George, Tilly, Mason, Miles, Emme, Rayansh, Robyn, Alice, Bonnie, Luna and Walter. Their achievement will be acknowledged at their class celebration service on Friday.

Odd Socks Day Monday 16th November

Odd socks Day is an annual event that marks the start of Anti-Bullying Week.

On Monday, all the children need to do is wear mismatched socks to celebrate individuality and show that it is good to be different!

Alex Wilmore Author Visit 10.11.26

On Tuesday, children's author and illustrator Alex Wilmore led a workshop on his book 'Bad to the Bone' for the children in Classes 1 and 2.

'I liked adding clothes to my picture of the dog. I drew a scarf, hat and a ball for the dog to play with in the snow.' Darcie

'I thought it was funny in the story when the dog's owner picked up the poo! ' George

'It was inspiring to learn how Alex wrote and illustrated a story book about his own dog.' Edward

'It was a funny story when the dog said 'You are welcome' after he had made a mess in a restaurant' Ivy

'Alex showed us how to draw the dog from the story and then he turned it into a superhero' Jon

*'He signed the book I bought and drew a picture of the dog in the book 'Amelia
